

APRIL 3, 1964

ASIA EDITION

TIME

The U.S. & Southeast Asia or
How to Cope with Never-Never Land

THE WEEKLY NEWSMAGAZINE

CAMBODIA'S
PRINCE SIHANOUK

Pons Chaleaporn

VOL. 83 NO. 14

BURMA K 1.50
CAMBODIA Rs. 13
CEYLON Rs. 1.50
FIJI 2/6
FR. POLYNESIA FP 30

GUAM 30¢
HONG KONG HK$2.00
INDIA Rs. 1.50
INDONESIA Rp. 8.70
JAPAN ¥ 100

KOREA 35 Won
LAOS K 175
MALAYSIA M$1.00
NEPAL N.Rs. 2.40
OKINAWA 30¢

PAKISTAN Rs. 1.50
PHILIPPINES 90¢
SAMOA (U.S.) 30¢
TAHITI FP 30
TAIWAN NT$12.00

THAILAND B 7
U. S. ARMED FORCES 30¢
VIET NAM VN$15
WAKE ISLAND 30¢
WESTERN SAMOA 2/3

(REG. U.S. PAT. OFF.)

You Can Rely On Kodon's RADIODETERMINATION Instruments

Since 1947, Kodon Electronics has been specializing in radio direction finder as navigation instruments. Its vast, world-wide research and experimental facilities have long been recognized as a pioneer in this field. Kodon's specialists are ever adding new features in its products for superior performance, and to make navigation safer and surer. Thus, you can rely on Kodon's top quality instruments.

Kodon Electronics Co., Ltd.

284, KAMIOSAKI CHOJAMARU, SHINAGAWA-KU, TOKYO, JAPAN
CABLE ADDRESS: "KOELEC TOKYO"

DISTRIBUTORS WANTED

These 5 men are the sales department of Atlantic, Gulf & Pacific Co. of Manila. They distribute Smith welding equipment exclusively in the Philippines...gas regulators and torches for welding, cutting, brazing, soldering.

We want more distributors like them in other countries of Asia. Or maybe like you.

If interested, please write: M. E. Fallek, Smith Welding Div. of Tescom, Box 4146, Minneapolis, Minn., U.S.A.

HAMMER brand

casters

Type L

Type G

On display at the 6th Osaka International Trade Fair in Japan. (General Exhibit Hall No. 7, Minato Fairgrounds No. 1)

Recognition of the superior quality of Hammer brand casters is indicated by the fact that they are now being exported all over the world.

YOSHIDA METAL IND. CO., LTD.

688, Mikuriya, Fuse, Osaka, Japan

BEN MARTIN

JUDGE KAUFMAN

Favoring delightful sentiments.

man: "Through depression and boom, war and peace, Tin Pan Alley has light-heartedly insisted that 'the whole world laughs' with a laughter, and that 'the best things in life are free.'" The suit against Mad is "an apparent departure from these delightful sentiments." Parodists, said Judge Kaufman, must be permitted to borrow from the original, or else there could be no parody. "While the social interest in encouraging the broad-gauged burlesques of Mad magazine is admittedly not readily apparent, we believe that parody and satire are deserving of substantial freedom—both as entertainment and as a form of social and literary criticism."

Courts have held that a parodist is infringing on a copyright if he carries the borrowing to excess, but Mad's barely recognizable parodies of the song lyrics, said Kaufman, fell within the traditional "fair use" rule. It could hardly be considered unfair that the Mad versions were cast in the same meter as the original lyrics: "We doubt that even so eminent a composer as Irving Berlin should be permitted to claim a property interest in iambic pentameter."

THE SUPREME COURT

Contested Cargo

With one sweeping decree on Aug. 6, 1960, Fidel Castro expropriated Cuban enterprises that were wholly or largely owned by U.S. citizens. On that very day, in the port of Santa Maria, a ship was being loaded with sugar that had been produced by one of the expropriated companies, Compañia Azucarera de Vertientes-Camaguey de Cuba, otherwise known as C.A.V. That white cargo set off on a four-year cruise through the U.S. courts.

At the time of the expropriation decree, the sugar had already been sold to a U.S. commodity broker, Farr, Whitlock & Co., but C.A.V. had not yet received payment. Before the Castro